

Advocacy in Pharmacy Practice Task Force

Members: Chair: Sarah McBane (California – San Diego), Todd Brown (Northeastern), Dorie Hoody (Colorado), David Matthews (Texas A & M), Marilyn Novell (Auburn), Charles Ponte (West Virginia), Fae Woodling (Massachusetts – Worcester)

Charges

1. Establish a network of pharmacy practice faculty advocates in every state, at each college of pharmacy, to interface with professional, political, and private leaders for the purpose of advancing pharmacy practice.
2. Work with the AACP Vice President for Policy and Advocacy to develop advocacy resources (aka advocacy tool kit) for use by Section members.
3. Collaborate with the Chair of the Council of Deans on raising awareness to, and developing a strategy to proactively impact on advocacy policy issues pertaining to pharmacy practice and pharmacy education.

Charge 1: Development of COF/COD Advocacy task force seemed to duplicate charges for Pharmacy Practice task force

Charge 2: Extensive materials available on AACP website. Future direction - improve awareness.

Charge 3: Email correspondence occurred, no formal progress.

Submitted by,

Sarah McBane, Chair