

Geriatric-Focused Research

Ongoing Research Projects:

- University of Arizona College of Pharmacy
 - a. Jeannie Kim Lee, Pharm.D, BCPS
 - i. Source: Department of Health and Human Services, Health Resources and Services Administration Dec 2008 – Present
Title: Arizona Geriatric Education Center
Goals: Interprofessional development and geriatric education.
Role: Co-investigator and faculty providing clinical pharmacy expertise and education related to pharmacology in aging, pharmacotherapy, and medication management and adherence.

Completed Research Support:

- University of Arizona College of Pharmacy
 - a. Jeannie Kim Lee, Pharm.D, BCPS
 - i. Source: ASHP Research and Education Foundation May 2004 – Dec 2006

Title: Federal Study of Adherence to Medications in the Elderly (FAME)

Goals: To test the impact of a comprehensive pharmacy care program on medication adherence, blood pressure and low-density lipoprotein cholesterol in elderly patients taking polypharmacy (Prospective observational and randomized controlled trial).

Role: Principal Investigator; worked with multidisciplinary team; roles included roles included conception and design, data acquisition/analysis/interpretation, drafting and revision of manuscript, obtaining funding, and administrative support.
 - ii. Source: ASHP Research and Education Foundation May 2008 – December 2009

Title: Demonstrating Pharmacists' Impact on Therapeutic, Safety, Humanistic and Economic Health

Outcomes: A Systematic Review and Meta-analysis

Goals: To conduct a systematic review of evidence demonstrating pharmacists' value and impact on health-related outcomes in the US, supplemented with focused meta-analyses.

Role: Co-principal Investigator; worked with multidisciplinary team of reviewers on this extensive project; roles included conception and design, data acquisition/analysis/interpretation, drafting and revision of manuscript, obtaining funding, and administrative support.