

Assessment Questions for “Teaching Students to Prepare Grant Proposals through a Mock Competition:”

1. The Community Pharmacy Foundation is a non-profit organization which conducts research centered on the validation of the impact of pharmacist interventions on patient outcomes.
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. Students developing a grant proposal for the Community Pharmacy Foundation incorporate each of the following with the EXCEPTION of:
 - a. Needs assessment
 - b. Capacity, readiness and operations
 - c. Budget
 - d. A long-term 20 year future projection in the business plan
3. Students learn the problem statement developed in the grant proposal is a key element of the proposal. Each of the following is a true statement regarding the problem statement with the EXCEPTION of:
 - a. The problem statement should clearly and concisely describe the specific problem to be addressed.
 - b. Foundations and granting agencies use reviewers who are knowledgeable in the topics the organizations fund; the writer may assume reviewers are content experts.
 - c. Statistics can be used to support the need for the topic/problem/issue to be researched; the stats can support the fact that this problem exists.
 - d. Address the outcomes your project will achieve by providing a timeline which highlights where objectives will be attained.