

PHAR 6111

Case A

Contact Information

Name: Pat Smith

Address: Use your own

Telephone: 555 – last 4 digits of your phone number

Demographics

Age: 27 years old

Date of Birth: 8-15-1981

Gender: Yours

Weight: Whatever you say.

Pregnancy status: Not

Breast feeding: Not

Occupation: Telemarketer (sell internet services)

Living arrangements/Family: Use yours

Health Insurance: Use your situation.

REASON FOR THE ENCOUNTER: You have had heartburn for the last two weeks which seems to get better when you eat, but wakes you up at night.

Medication Experience

General attitude toward taking medication: Whatever you say.

Expectations from drug therapy: You would like the heartburn to go away, especially at night.

Concerns with your medications: The Excedrin® you take for occasional headaches makes your heartburn worse.

Understands medications: You do not take many medications, but are interested in learning as much as you can about the medications you DO take.

Cultural/religious/ethical issues: You are vegetarian (not vegan) and do not like to ingest animal products.

Medication taking behavior: Only take Excedrin® when your headache pain becomes unbearable.

Adult immunizations: Never get a flu shot. Last tetanus shot when you were a teenager.

Tobacco use: Whatever you say.

Caffeine use: Three cups of coffee most days, four on days you work the evening shift.

Alcohol: Whatever you say.

Other recreational drug use: Whatever you say.

Medication allergies: Penicillin makes you break out in a rash.

Adverse reactions to drugs in the past: Tylenol with Codeine made you sick to your stomach.

Other alerts: None.

Past Medical History: Appendix removed when you were 15 years old.

Nutritional status: No information.

Review of systems: Whatever you say.