

Information and Application for Grace and Harold Sewell Memorial Fund Stipends for RETURNING LIBRARIAN ATTENDEES
at the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP)
Annual Meeting – Pharmacy Education 2026

Stipend Program Administered by the AACP Drug Information and Library Sciences Section

“The mission of The Grace and Harold Sewell Memorial Fund is to increase librarians’ identification with medical, pharmaceutical, and health care professionals. Librarians experienced in managing knowledge and teaching informatics can supply quality information by becoming ongoing members of the health care team. Immersion in the health care environment is necessary for librarians to understand how health care professionals solve problems individually and through consensus.” For more information about the fund, see <http://www.sewellfund.org>.

The American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP) annual meeting is the largest national gathering of academic pharmacy educators, administrators, and staff. The 2026 meeting, called Pharmacy Education 2026, will be held July 18-21 in Grapevine, Texas.

The intent of the Sewell Fund stipends is primarily to support librarians who have not attended an AACP Annual Meeting. The amount available for returning librarians is contingent upon the total amount available to distribute after stipend are awarded to first-time meeting attendees. If all available funds are needed for stipends for first-time attendees, then no stipends will be available for returning members. If funds are available, stipends for returning attendees will be no more than the meeting registration.

Recipients of the Sewell Fund stipend will independently register for Pharmacy Education 2026 and determine their own travel and lodging. Following the meeting, recipients will receive the stipend to reimburse meeting costs.

Deadline for application: May 29, 2026

Eligibility criteria for returning AACP attendees:

- Professional librarians with the MLS/MLIS degree who are directly responsible for information support, collection development, and instruction for a pharmacy academic curriculum are eligible for a stipend. At the time of application for a stipend, the applicant must be employed in a library supporting a pharmacy college/school and the pharmacy college/school must be accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) or have begun the process to be accredited by ACPE.
- Returning attendee applicants must have been a member of the AACP Drug Information and Library Science Section (DILS) for a minimum of one year.

- Preference will be given to:
 - DILS Executive Board members (Chair, Chair-Elect*, Immediate Past Chair, or Secretary of Knowledge Management) or as an active DILS Committee Chair
 - Giving a presentation or presenting a poster at the AACP Annual Meeting

*If the Chair-Elect is a librarian, a stipend will be automatically awarded if funds are available after all qualified first-time attendee applicants are funded. The Chair-Elect does not need to fill out an application for the stipend; however, the Chair-Elect must still submit the required report after the meeting.

Recipient requirements:

1. Recipients must attend the DILS programs in their entirety and all posters sponsored by DILS. Recipients are encouraged to attend the Basic Resources planning session if one is included in the meeting schedule.
2. Recipients must attend at least three other sessions, at least one of which must be a plenary/general session for all attending the meeting. Recipients are encouraged to attend more than this minimum number of sessions.
3. Immediately following the meeting, recipients must submit a report (not to exceed 300 words), giving highlights and perceptions of the AACP, DILS, and other sessions attended (a summary, not just a list). Discuss how these experiences will be beneficial in your work with pharmacy faculty and students. These reports will be published online as models for future applicants, and they may be selected for subsequent publication in print.

Application process:

Complete the attached application form, including:

- A brief statement (150-200 words) explaining what you expect to gain from attending Pharmacy Education 2026. The statement should address how receiving a stipend would allow you to meet the stated goal of the Sewell Fund to “increase librarians’ identification with medical and health care professionals,” in this case pharmacy educators.
- A brief description of your participation in AACP and DILS over the past three years. Participation may include offices held, committee service, work on the Basic Resources or Core Journal List projects, or attendance at AACP annual meetings.
