

Updates

Surveys

The 2014–15 Profile of Pharmacy Students is live online.

This members-only publication provides data on applications to first professional degree programs and degrees conferred and student enrollment in professional and graduate degree programs.

A new interactive dashboard is now available on Trends in the Number of Full-Time Pharmacy Faculty (2006/07 – Present).

The 2014-15 Financial Survey and 2014-15 Vacant Budgeted and Lost Faculty Positions briefs are now available on the AACP website.

Assessment & Accreditation Management System (AAMS)

AAMS 1.0 for Standards 2007 will be phased out in accordance with the implementation of Standards 2016. June 30th will be the last day to access the AAMS 1.0 website. If your institution needs to save any items from AAMS 1.0 prior to June 30th, please see the AAMS FAQ for instructions on how to do so.

Survey Timeline

Opening Soon

The 2016-17 Roster and Faculty Salary Survey will open on Monday, June 13th.

Closing Soon

The 2016-17 Tuition Survey will close on Friday, June 17th.

The 2016 Graduating Student and Faculty Surveys will close on Thursday, June 30th.

The 2016 Alumni and Preceptor Surveys will close on Wednesday, August 31st.

New benchmarking report options, including Financial Revenues, Financial Expenditures, and Total Extramural Funding comparisons are now available in AAMS 2.0.

#PharmEd Fact

Did you know?

The average salary for a Full-Time Assistant Professor in Pharmacy is $104.4k.

2015–16 Average Full-Time Pharmacy Faculty Salaries
by Rank for Calendar-year Appointments

Standard deviation is reported in grey text.

Source: 2015-16 AACP Profile of Pharmacy Faculty

To see more faculty salary data, check out The Profile of Pharmacy Faculty!